

Community Housing Locations Using the Online Housing Offer Process – April 2023

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- All community housing providers in York Region are now using the online housing offer process and are only offering units through the online application portal.
- If you are interested in living at these locations, you must express interest in available units through the online portal to be considered for an offer of housing.
- You will only be contacted for an offer if you have expressed interest and are the top-ranked applicant.
