

Human Services Planning Board of York Region Strategic Direction

Lisa Alfieri Sladen, Manager, Human Services Strategies &
Partnerships

September 22, 2017

...collaboration...collective leadership...partnerships...

A decorative wavy line at the bottom of the slide, composed of overlapping bands of grey, blue, and green.

Presentation Overview

Looking ahead....

- HSPB Evaluation
 - Board member 2017 On-line Survey and Interviews
 - Reviewing Terms of Reference
 - Report back on individual and collective actions
- Next steps - Planning for 2018

...collaboration...collective leadership...partnerships...

HSPB Evaluation

1. Measure the effectiveness of the Board
2. Measure how much the Board 'turned the curve' on identified results
 - How much did we do?
 - How well did we do it?
 - Is anyone better off?

...collaboration...collective leadership...partnerships...

How will we evaluate the Board and its work in community?

- Board member 2017 On-line Survey and Interviews
- Report back on individual and collective actions
- Review Terms of Reference

...collaboration...collective leadership...partnerships...

Next steps- Planning for 2018

- Update on milestones and accomplishments
 - Collective and individual actions
 - Report to Council - September 2018
- Planning for new board term (2019 – 2022)
 - Implement recommendations from the evaluation in the new board term
 - Recruitment and selection of returning and new

...collaboration...collective leadership...partnerships...

Thank You

...collaboration...collective leadership...partnerships...

A decorative wavy line at the bottom of the slide, composed of overlapping bands of grey, blue, and green.