Hello Janet – Thank you so much for the introduction to the good work of the Human Services Planning Board of York Region. I'm impressed by the ambition of the work that you have set out for yourselves and by the commitment to tangible outcomes that you have set. As we discussed, with our new strategic plan now in place, we are now rethinking our role and we do not believe we are a good fit for the Planning Board going forward. We thank you for the seat but we are resigning from the Board. All the best as you proceed with your plans.

Margaret
